

Tuesday 10th June

Day 1

9.30-11 Barry Sandywell - Dialectic, indebtedness, ambivalence and the pursuit of analytic speech: notes on revisiting 'On the Beginning of Social Inquiry'
Patrick Colfer - From 'The Symbolic To The Real In The Development Of Analysis

BREAK

11.30-1 Cosima Rughiniş & Bogdana Humă - Adventures in joint examinations of 'motive' talk and sociological analyses
Keith Hennessey Brown - Some reflections on art and analysis, with specific reference to Pasolini's film theory
Allison Carter - Revisiting Personhood in On the Beginning

LUNCH

2-3.30 Karolina Korsak - Reflexivity and Judgment: Examining the Foundations of Culture Beyond Practical Everyday Reality
Celia Huang - Rethinking motive for social inquiry
Chamathaka Devasirie - A Case Study in the Application of the Dialectical Analysis on Friendship and Shared Understandings in Plato's Crito

BREAK

4-5.00 Alan Blum - On the Unending Beginning of Social Inquiry

Dinner @ Spoon

Wednesday 11th June

Day 2

9.30-11 Richard Feesey - Expats
Stanley Raffel - Rethinking the 'Travel Paper'
Greg Schnuer - "Honestly Speaking" – Some Implications of Analysis

BREAK

11.30-1 Eric Laurier - Snubs and reunions
Mareike Barmeyer - Doing being local at the Lakeside Lounge
Saeed Hydaralli - The City that Moves Us: Being Mobile in Toronto

LUNCH

2-3.00 Kieran Bonner - The Method of Dialectic
Andriani Papadopoyloy -How viable is the idea in On the Beginning of Social Inquiry of collective and collaborative problem-solving?

BREAK

3.30-4.30 Steve Bailey - Dasein/Analysis? Blum and McHugh within the Continental Tradition
Steve Kemp - Exploring the Relationship Between On the Beginning of Social Inquiry and Feminist Perspectives

4.45-5.30 Closing Remarks - Panel Discussion - members TBA